

I am expressing my opinion to support Steve Carter in his attempt to keep the privacy (no call) list from weakening. Which would include keeping the CBA from further attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship".